

Application for limited registration as a Veterinarian in New Zealand

(Under section 14 of the Veterinarians Act 2005)

Who should use this form?

This application form should be used by applicants who do not hold recognised qualifications (or a pass in a prescribed assessment or examination programme) and are seeking registration in one of the following limited scopes of practice:

- Academic scope
- Postgraduate training scope
- Industry scope - laboratory diagnosis and/or pathology
- Biosecurity or other emergency scope
- Scope relating to particular skills for a restricted period
- Restricted purpose scope
- Time limited scope for New Zealand based candidates for the National Veterinary Examination (NVE).

(refer to <http://www.vetcouncil.org.nz/gainReg.php> for information on recognised qualifications and <http://www.vetcouncil.org.nz/limReg.php> for further detail on the limited scopes)

All other applicants must:

- use the general registration application form; or
- (if a new Massey graduates) use the Massey New Graduate Registration application form; or
- (if registered in Australia) use the TTMRA Registration application form

These are available at <http://www.vetcouncil.org.nz/gainReg.php> and on request from the Veterinary Council offices.

Requirements for registration in a limited scope of practice and the issue of a practising certificate

Before approving limited registration and the issue of a practising certificate the Council must be satisfied that:

- the applicant holds a primary veterinary science degree of not less than four years of study
- the applicant meets minimum fitness and recency of practice requirements (refer to www.vetcouncil.org.nz/pubs for Policy on Recency of Practice and Gazette Notice on Minimum Standards for Practising)
- the applicant can communicate in and understand English to the required standard
- the employer or proposed supervisor has made a submission supporting the application
- the applicant meets the additional registration requirements for the relevant limited scope. These are set out in Council Policy on Limited Registration at <http://www.vetcouncil.org.nz/limReg.php>

Important notes

This application form is a legal document. Please print all answers clearly and do not use correction fluid or tape. Any error must be crossed out and initialled.

Applicants should include with their application:

- a covering letter which expands on the information provided in this application form and addresses the specific individual scope requirements as detailed in the Policy on Limited Registration.
- a detailed curriculum vitae (CV)

Failure to do so can result in delays in processing the application.

Limited registration applications require detailed consideration. Applicants therefore need to be aware that the limited registration process can take up to three months.

All applicants must complete the application carefully and honestly. If you provide false or misleading information your registration may be cancelled.

The information you give in this application is covered by a statutory declaration which must be declared in front of a person authorised to administer an oath for the purpose of statutory proceedings. Outside of New Zealand you must use a Notary Public or Commissioner of Oaths. In New Zealand Notaries Public and Justices of the Peace are listed in the Yellow Pages of the telephone directory and a list of other people eligible to certify documents is provided on page 10 of this document. The certification must state your full name, the date, and include the stamp of the certifying officer and their signature. Certification should be directly on the copied document and not on any attached sheet.

We prefer not to receive original documents as they require special care. All copies of your documents must be certified or notarised as true copies of the originals by the official who witnesses your statutory declaration. This person must also sight and certify a copy of the identification pages of your passport and certify, on the reverse of the required photograph, that it is a true likeness of you.

Please use the checklist at the back of this application to ensure you have enclosed the correct fees, all relevant documents and that you have completed all sections. Incomplete applications may be returned to you for completion.

Please forward your completed application to:
The Registrar
Veterinary Council of New Zealand
PO Box 10 563
Wellington 6143, New Zealand

Please remove this cover page before submitting your application.
