

Request for change of name on the Register of Veterinarians

Requests for name changes need to be accompanied by a certified copy of the document which authorised the name change e.g. marriage certificate. A copy of the original authorising document must be certified as a true copy of the original by a notary public or justice of the peace (refer to the Yellow Pages of the telephone directory for those in your area) or by a barrister or solicitor.

Your current details can be seen in the public Register of Veterinarians at www.vetcouncil.org.nz/onlineReg.php
